

República Bolivariana de Venezuela

Comunicado Oficial

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela denounces that, at a time when humanity is facing the fiercest of pandemics, the government of Donald Trump is once again attacking the People of Venezuela and its democratic institutions, using a new form of coup d'état on the basis of miserable, vulgar and unfounded accusations that try to minimize the high recognition that Venezuela has in the fight against drug trafficking fully demonstrated in different multilateral spheres.

The policy of change of government by force in Venezuela is doomed to failure. Offering rewards, in the style of the racist cowboys of the Wild West, demonstrates the desperation of the Washington supremacist elite and its obsession with Venezuela in order to achieve electoral returns in the state of Florida.

The deep frustration of the White House is a product of the peace that reigns today in Venezuela, whose authorities have managed to neutralize all the coup and destabilizing attempts planned and financed from the United States.

Likewise, the government of Donald Trump does not accept that, using a unique and unprecedented model, the government of Nicolás Maduro is managing to adequately manage the threats of the Covid-19, in the face of the resounding failure that the American institutions have demonstrated in this matter.

It is appropriate to recall the world-renowned role that the Bolivarian Government of Venezuela played in facilitating the negotiations and signing of the peace agreement between the Colombian government and the FARC. Commander Hugo Chávez and Nicolás Maduro, first as chancellor and then as president, were key players in achieving such a relevant agreement for Colombian society.

Ironically, it is in Columbia where they are producing drugs that the U.S. let enter its territory, which is later on consumed outrageously by its population. The DEA is an international key player for protection of the drugs production and processing in Columbia, as well as a guardian and a watchman for its movement up to the brain cells of the U.S. young people.

República Bolivariana de Venezuela

Comunicado Oficial

Today, as demonstrated by the declarations of those directly responsible, the allegations repeatedly made by the Bolivarian Government over the last two years regarding the planning of terrorist actions in Colombian territory, financed and directed from the United States, against the peace and stability of Venezuela are confirmed. This shows the absolute complicity and submission of the Colombian authorities to the United States. Colombian authorities by ignoring the serious complaints and dismissing the specific information that was opportunely provided to them, have lent their territory and resources for conspiracies against Venezuela, in frank violation of international agreements and the Charter of the United Nations.

The people of Venezuela and its Bolivarian Government will face with truth all the attacks and lies that come from the main State that promotes terrorism and drug trafficking in the world. Venezuelan democratic institutions guarantee the protection of their Venezuelan people against any desperate action by the government of Donald Trump. Venezuela's independence is consolidated in the face of every attack by the decadent and infamous US imperialism.
